Dresden, October 17, N. S.

M. Keyserling, her Czarish Majesty's Minister at this Court, has presented a second Memorial, upon the Subject of the continual Incursions made by the Tartars into Poland, and enforces the Necessity of his Polish Majesty's taking speedily proper Measures to hinder such Practices for the future. Count Sulkowski, who went from hence on the 10th Instant to Lissa, returned hither again this Day. Count Lynar, the Polish Minister to the Court of Petersbourg, who is now returned hither with his Polish Majesty's Leave, reports, that the Russians think there is the strictest Friendship subsisting between the Persians and them, and that the News which had been spread of a Peace being concluded between the Grand Signior and the Sophy of Persia, was entirely without Foundation. M. de Loss, his Polish Majesty's Minister to the Court of Great Britain, arrived here a few Days ago from Hanover.

Copenhagen, Oct. 27, N. S. The 19th Instant, being the Birth-day of the Princess Louisa, the same was celebrated at Friedensburg in plain Habits, according to the Ordonnance of the 16th of April last, to restrain Luxury in Apparel. This Princess, who is Daughter to their present Danish Majesties, enters now into the Eleventh Year of her Age. The King of Denmark went lately to survey the Building of his new Palace, which has already occasioned a vast Expence, and is now advanced to the third Story. The Danish Court came Yesterday to Fridericksberg, a Town in this Neighbourhood, where it is supposed they will pass the Winter.

Hague, Nov. 2, N. S. The States of the Province of Holland will assemble on the 14th Instant; and it is hoped the Grand Pensionary may then be able to assist in their Deliberations. M. St. Gil, the Spanish Ambassador here, says publickly, that the Affairs which have been some Time depending between his Master and the Court of Vienna, are now entirely adjusted, and that in Consequence thereof, Tuscany will be immediately evacuated by the Spaniards. The said Ambassadour is making Preparations for giving a splendid Entertainment on Sunday next, to a great Number of Persons whom he has invited, in order to celebrate the Birth-Day of Don Carlos.

Kensington, October 21.

M. Johnn, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Denmark, had this Day his first private Audience of her Majesty; to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Harrington one of his Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by John Inglis, Esq; Assistanr Master of the Ceremonies.

Kensington, Oct. 25. This Day M. Johnn, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Denmark, had his first private Audience of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

He had afterwards an Audience of her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales; to both which Audiences he was conducted by the Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, October 26, 1736.

Whereas George Kelly, a Prisoner in the Tower of London, made his Escape from thence Yesterday, as is supposed between the Hours of Seven and Eight in the Evening: Her Majesty is graciously pleased to promise a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons that shall apprehend and seize, or cause to be apprehended and seized, the said George Kelly, so that he may be secured, and proceeded against according to Law. HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

The said George Kelly is aged about Forty Eight Years, Five Foot two Inches high, or thereabouts, a little too slender leg'd for his Height, of a fair Complexion, good Teeth, large blue Eyes, and a broad and flattish Face, inclining to be slender rather than fat.

The Committee for Letting the Cities Lands in the Account of the Chamberlain of the City of London, give Notice, that pursuant to an Order of Common-Council, they shall be ready to treat with such Person or Persons, as shall undertake to erect, compleat, and finish, a Market on that Part of Fleet-ditch which hath lately been arched over and filled up, according to the Manner of Building, Scantlings, and Materials therein to be used, as specified and laid down in a Plan or Design thereof, which Plan, with the Dimensions, &c. may be seen at the Comptrollers Office in the Guildhall of the City of London aforesaid. And they further give Notice to all such Persons as shall be willing to undertake the whole, or any Part or Parts of the said Work, that they are to leave their Proposals in Writing, sealed up, at the Comptroller's Office aforesaid, on or before the 27th Day of October Instant; which Proposals are to contain the Work to be done, the Manner thereof, the Price, and the Time in which the same shall be finished and compleated. And the said Committee will sit in the Council Chamber of the Guildhall aforesaid, on Wednesday the said 27th Day of October Instant, at Four a-Clock in the Afternoon, to open the said Proposals, where the respective Proposers are to attend.

The Committee for Letting the Bridge-House Lands give Notice, That they intend to Lett by several Leases the following Lots, viz. No 1. Three Messuages or Tenements, with the Appurtenances, in Horseshoe-Court, in St. Olave-street, Southwark, late in the Possession of Martha Storey, Widow. No 2. A Messuage or Tenement in the Bridge Yard, Southwark, lately in the Occupation of Robert Weston. No 3. A Messuage or Tenement in Bishopsgate-street, in the Parish of St. Ethelborough, in the Possession of William Bull, Upholder. No 4. A Messuage or Tenement in the Old Change, in the Parish of St. Michael at Quern, London, in the Possession of Mr. Whiteman, Engraver. And that the said Committee will sit in the Council-Chamber of the Guildhall, London, on Wednesday the 3d Day of November next, at Four of the Clock in the Afternoon, to receive Proposals for the same: Of which more particular Information may be had at the Comptroller's Office at the Bridge-House, Southwark.
